

Tenses Using Verbs

A very common mistake in writing, is to change tenses of verbs. Verbs must be in the same tense. Rewrite these sentences so that all the verbs are in past tense.

Singing to herself, Arabella brushes her hair and grabs her bag.

Zachary was a frustrating boy, and irritates his friends with his constantly changing moods.

David and Jane are reducing their carbon footprint by recycling and reusing what they can.

Sienna makes sure she eats a diet rich in fruits and vegetables so her body is healthy and strong.
