

Tenses Using Verbs

A very common mistake in writing, is to change tenses of verbs. Verbs must be in the same tense. Rewrite these sentences so that all the verbs are in past tense.

Singing to herself, Arabella brushes her hair and grabbing her bag.

---

---

David and Jane are reducing their carbon footprint by recycling and reusing what they can.
