

Adverbs

Adverbs are words that usually describe a verb. They tell us when (time), where (place) or how (manner).

Verity bought a dress yesterday. – Tells us when

I can see the rain outside. – Tells us where

They ran quickly. – Tells us how

There are 3 types of adverbs

Adverbs can be modified

An Adjective

A preposition

A conjunction

A sentence

The pool was very deep.

He knew exactly where to look.

I like pie, however he doesn't.

Happily, they found the ring.